the famous Oak Park Friars Sunday will be a real test of Hammond's football strength, said Coach Ralph Jones today in discussing the fourth battle on the Scattna schedule. This game against a team considered to be the best in the Midwest league will show what class of foot. bull the locals can put up." If the Scatena eleven is able to win from the Friars it can consider itself in the running for the championship

Definite predictions as to the result of the contest with Oak Park are lacking among the hundreds of Scatena followers since the many promising reports from Oak Park have been circulated here. Hammond rooters expect one of the hardest fought games of the season, but most of them are at sea as to the probable outcome of the

The winner of the Scatena-Friar buttle will no doubt be conceded to have the best chance to contest for the Midwest football championship. The Scatenas, who were runners up hast year, are out to cop this season and if confidence means anything the Scatenas stand a very good show of coming out on top.

Both the Friars and the Scatenas have not been beaten thus far, each cam has claims to three hard victories, with Oak Park boasting that their goal has not been crossed as yet. The Scatena line has been had scored first.

Oak Park has a very strong comformer high school stars who have been declared ineligible while in for a lengthy drill. high school or in some college. Frank Winter, former Illinois university athlete and present coach of the Oak Park high school, is tutoring the Friar eleven. Winter's coaching ability is known wherever football is played, and the fact that Coach Jones is some coach himself ought to make the expected heated game an interesting one.

The visiting team is under the impression that the Scatena line is not so efficient, although it is big enough. In the games played thus far the Scat line has shown re-
